Serving You Better in the New Year and Beyond

Happy New Year! Thanks to your participation, 2019 was an outstanding year for CU SoCal. Your credit union is financially strong and well positioned to enhance the value of Membership for its 120,000 Members in 2020 and beyond.

As a Member of CU SoCal, you're an owner of our cooperative. This means we're here to serve you and meet your financial needs. Recently we introduced a new Member survey program to request your feedback about our service. If you receive a survey, I encourage you to participate to tell us what we're doing well and what we can do better. The improvements we make to our products and services are based on your valuable feedback.

One way we're working to serve you better in 2020 and beyond, thanks in part to your feedback, is by improving our technology and online services. Soon we'll be upgrading our mobile and online banking platform and adding even more features, including person-to-person (P2P) payments so you can quickly and easily pay a friend or family member. We are excited to provide Members with an even higher level of service through our new online and mobile banking channels and appreciate your patience as we make this change.

Regardless of what service channels you prefer to use to access your account and manage your financial life, we are committed to providing you with exceptional service and a consistent Member experience. Thank you for choosing CU SoCal. We look forward to another positive year and wish you a financially healthy new year!

Sincerely,

Dave Gunderson
President/CEO

Financial Goals for a Great New Year

The new year is a great time to tackle debt and develop financial habits for a positive financial path. Below are helpful steps to get started.

1. Get a financial checkup in minutes at CUsoCal.org/Learn/Financial-Guidance. Receive a thorough analysis of your financial situation, including tips from leading financial experts to manage debt, build a budget, and improve your financial success.
2. Make specific, realistic goals. Create a spending and savings plan. Identify needs vs. wants and make spending choices with your goal in mind.
3. Reduce debt faster by paying a lower interest rate. Transfer balances you have with other lenders to a CU SoCal Credit Card with a lower rate—no transfer fee. Or, move your auto loan to CU SoCal and we may lower your rate by at least 2% APR.¹
4. Save for goals and financial security. Set up direct deposits or automatic payments to a CU SoCal savings account. A recommended savings goal is to set aside at least 10 percent from your net income.
5. Set up alerts in CU SoCal's Online Banking to receive notifications about unusual account activity, upcoming payments, transactions over a certain dollar amount, or low balances.

Coming soon! Look for a new CU SoCal Online and Mobile Banking platform with enhanced features to help streamline your digital banking experience.

ASK CU SoCal

Happy New Year, CU SoCal! I enjoyed a few days in Big Bear shredding the slopes, and now I'm ready to head home and focus on shredding my mountain of debt. Although I'm capable of handling the black diamond runs on the slopes, I'm afraid I might wipe out on a bunny slope of debt. Can you help guide me down this mountain?

—Determined to make a mountain into a molehill in Montclair

Dear Determined,

We applaud you for resolving to face your debt head on before it snowballs any further, and we're honored you came to CU SoCal for help. We're confident we can help you make it down with ease.

1 Build an emergency savings fund. Just as you've packed up all your essentials before hitting the slopes, financial experts Jean Chatzky and Dave Ramsey both recommend packing away savings of $500 to $1000 before paying down debt. Having funds stashed away for a rainy day will prevent resorting to high-rate credit cards when unplanned events arise.

2 Consolidate higher rate loans to a lower rate. There is a hard way and an easy way to make it to the top of a run. You can carry your gear and hike uphill, or take the ski lift. The same goes for paying down debt. You can pay down your loans separately at their original, higher interest rates, or you can combine your debts into one simple payment and refinance them at a lower rate. CU SoCal currently offers a competitive, low 1.99% APR for 12 months on balance transfers to a CU SoCal Credit Card that can be used to help pay down your debt. You can apply online at CUSoCal.org/Borrow/Credit-Cards.

3 After that, focus on making your payments on time, and you'll be on your way down that mountain. If you are looking for additional financial guidance, you can visit CUSoCal.org/FinancialGuidance for a library of free educational resources. We're also glad to connect you with a CU SoCal loan consultant who can take a look at your financial picture and personally guide you to a solution that will work best for you. Just call 866.287.6225 and ask to speak with a member of the loan consultant team.

—Your friends at CU SoCal

We Appreciate You Too, Harold!

Harold opened a CU SoCal account after he was referred by a member of his church. He's enjoyed Member benefits since 2013.

"I've received great service from the people at the Brea branch. They've consistently provided me with good financial education and advice.

It wasn't until I became a Member that I learned how important it was to build my credit to make large purchases—previously I had paid everything with cash.

I continue to share with family and friends the many benefits and services the credit union offers. I especially appreciate that they treat me and my service dog, Baby, like we're family."

—Harold of Yorba Linda
