

CU SoCal Contributes Community Donations to Support Local Organizations and Initiatives

Anaheim Hills, CA —Credit Union of Southern California \(CU SoCal\) recently donated more than $18,000 to support local organizations and initiatives across the communities it serves, reinforcing its ongoing commitment to making a positive impact through engagement and giving. These contributions spanned March to May.

The contributions shown below support programs and events that foster community connection, promote youth development, and strengthen local communities:

- City of Fullerton Summer Live Concert Series and Coffee Fest—$3,000
- Downtown Anaheim Association Farmers Market—$1,300
- Helpline Youth Counseling's Heroes of HYC event—$1,000
- Orange County Rescue Mission's Children's Business Fair—$1,000
- El Monte Women's Club Scholarship Dinner—$1,000
- Whittier Museum & Historical Society's Annual Founders Day event—$1,000
- Garden Grove Elks Lodge Charitable Fund—$10,000 to help individuals and families impacted by the Garden Grove public safety incident

"These donations reflect CU SoCal's continued commitment to supporting the communities where our Members live and work," said Dave Gunderson, CU SoCal President and CEO. "We are proud to partner with organizations that create meaningful opportunities, provide vital resources, and make a lasting difference in people's lives."

As part of these contributions, CU SoCal team members actively participated in select events, including attendance at the El Monte Women's Club Scholarship Dinner, further demonstrating the credit union's hands-on commitment to community engagement.
